UI/UX Designer and Developer

PROFILE

I am a self-taught UI/UX Designer and Developer passionate about creating user-centered digital experiences. I am skilled in prototyping and high-fidelity design using Figma, Adobe XD, and Adobe Illustrator, along with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I am committed to problem-solving and writing readable, maintainable code. I am also curious about developing scalable distributed systems and continually improving my skills in both design and development.
